

A three-story traditional stone building with a dark wooden roof. The facade is light-colored stone with several windows featuring green shutters. Some windows have decorative white elements above them. A balcony with red flowers is visible on the second floor. The building is set in a village with mountains in the background.

NOVEMBER 2017

Oberbergerhof

Montan